Abstract:

The article presents basic regulations of an engagement and claims arising as a result of withdrawal from it under Polish and German Law. Author undertakes an attempt to answer the question: is it sufficient for an effective protection of property law of engaged people under Polish Law to base on general provisions of Civil law. Furthermore, author analyses if German regulations of damages for unjustified withdrawal from engagement lead to the same conclusion as application of general provisions of Polish Civil Law. Finally, author draws conclusion on necessity of implementation to Polish Law special regulations of engagement as under BGB.
