

AMERICAN ETHNICITY OLD AND NEW IMMIGRATION FLOWS, OLD AND NEW CHALLENGES

Polish Academy of Arts and Sciences,
Kraków, Sławkowska Street No 17

The event is sponsored by:
Jagiellonian University — Faculty of International and Political Studies
— Institute of American Studies and Polish Diaspora
Polish Academy of Arts and Sciences
The United States Consulate General in Kraków
Polish American Historical Association

Kraków, May 21st – May 22nd, 2018

Consulate of the United States of America in Kraków

Monday, May 21st

10.00 a.m. – 10.30 a.m.

Opening of the Conference

- Prof. Paweł Laidler, Vice–Dean of the Faculty of International and Political Studies of the Jagiellonian University
- Walter Braunohler — US Consul General in Kraków
- Prof. Anna Mazurkiewicz— President of the Polish American Historical Association

10.30 a.m. – 12.30 p.m.

Session I – Chair: Adam Walaszek (Jagiellonian University)

- Walter Kamphoefner (A & M University, Texas), What's New About the Newest Immigration? A Historian's Perspective
- Jose Moya (Barnard College, Columbia University), From Exiles to Immigrants: Cubans in the U.S., 1960–2017
- David Gerber (SUNNY at Buffalo), Rethinking Agency: Rethinking the Assumptions of the New Social History of Immigration of the Late 20th Century

1.30 p.m. – 3.30 p.m.

Session II – Chair: Sylvia Hahn (Universität Salzburg)

- Anna Mazurkiewicz (Gdańsk University), Migration Crises and Interest of a State. A Look at American Refugee Assistance Acts during the Cold War
- James Pula (Purdue University), When Policy Meets Politics: An Analysis of U.S. Immigration Issues, 1998–2018
- Hartmut Keil (University Leipzig), The German Forty–Eighters: In Search of an American Identity

4.00 p.m. – 6.00 p.m.

Session III — Chair: Halina Parafianowicz (University of Białystok)

- Elżbieta Goździak (Georgetown University), Central American Children and Youth in the United States: Prospects for Integration
- Halina Grzymała–Moszczyńska (Jagiellonian University), Psychological Processes Present in Migratory Experience of Children: Perspective from Cartoons, Books and Movies
- Joanna Kulpińska (Jagiellonian University), An Analysis of the Formation of Migration Networks Based on Data from the Ellis Island Archives. A Case Study of Strzyżow District

Tuesday, May 22nd

9.30 a.m. – 11.30 a.m.

Session IV — Chair: Dorota Przaszłowicz (Jagiellonian University)

- Mary Erdmans (Case Western Reserve University) & Adrianna Smell (Case Western Reserve University), Explaining U.S. Attitudes toward Immigrants: Context Factors, Labor Market Position, and Ideology
- Ewa Barczyk–Pease (University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee), How Libraries in the U.S. Help Maintain Polish Identity
- Silvia Dapia (City University of New York), Changing Official History Through Literature: The Case of Patagonian Immigration

12.00 noon – 2.00 p.m.

Session V — Chair: Stanley Nadel (University of Portland, Salzburg Program)

- Babiński, Grzegorz (Jagiellonian University), „Change and Continuity in the Process of Adaptation of Polish immigrants to American Society”
- Neal Pease (University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee), „Bolujmy, więc!: Polish Americans and Bowling in Milwaukee”
- Anna Fiń (Pedagogical University of Cracow), Emigration of Poles to the United States: 1990–2015. A Comparative study

3.00 p.m. – 5.00 p.m.

Session VI — Chair: Neal Pease (University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee)

- Patrycja Błasiak (Jagiellonian University), Sanctuary Movement during the Presidency of Donald Trump
- Mariusz Puchacz (University of Białystok), Immigration as a Source of Diplomatic Troubles: The Case of „Picture Brides”
- Vadzim Pauliuchuk (University of Białystok), Between the Hammer and the Anvil. Emigration from the Polish Borderlands to the United States, 1921–1939
- Piotr Szluzys (University of Białystok), From Czarist Russia to the “Promised Land”. Lithuanian Emigration to the United States